

Janet Lo is a lawyer with TekSavvy's legal, regulatory, and public policy team. TekSavvy is Canada's leading independent, consumer-focused telecommunications provider. Janet has a special focus on incorporating a strong pro-consumer and pro-privacy approach to TekSavvy's consumer agreements, relationships with consumers, and regulatory advocacy. Prior to joining TekSavvy in 2015, Janet worked in consumer policy and advocacy in the public and not-for-profit sectors, including the Public Interest Advocacy Centre, where she specialized in telecom, broadcasting, and privacy, and the Department of Finance Canada.