

Yuka is a Staff Lawyer at the Public Interest Advocacy Centre (PIAC), a national non-profit organization that advocates for the consumer interest in regulated industries like telecommunications and privacy. At PIAC, Yuka works on issues relating to wireless and wireline competition, wholesale policy, affordability, and accessibility of telecom services. At the University of Ottawa, Yuka earned her J.D. with specialization in Law and Technology.